

Debden Credit Union announces Retirement of General Manager

William (Bill) Sanderson

The Board of Directors Debden Credit Union wishes to announce to our staff, Members and community the upcoming retirement of our GM, Bill Sanderson. After successfully leading the Debden Credit Union for the past sixteen years, Bill has confirmed his plan to retire. Bill will be fulfilling the role of Branch transition lead with the merged Diamond North Credit Union from January 1, 2019 through April 30, 2019 and will retire thereafter.

Bill came to Debden as a Contract Manager in December of 2002, soon thereafter became the General Manager. Since that time, Bill, together with his team, have grown the Debden Credit Union more than double the size serving two communities and 2400 members.

Bill has dedicated thirty - seven years to the Credit Union system, starting his career as a teller at the age of 18. With dedication and effort, Bill advanced through the ranks, managing a number of credit unions in southwest Saskatchewan

“We are very fortunate to have had Bill’s extensive experience, knowledge, and passion for the Credit Union system over the last number of years.” States Christopher Warriner, Board chair. “ The Board appreciates his efforts and leadership, seeing to the organization and completion of our merger with Diamond North Credit Union, which will result in a stronger organization to serve our members and communities,” he adds.

“ I have greatly enjoyed working with the staff, members and Board of Directors of the Debden Credit Union over the past 16 years,” says Bill. “ I am completely confident that the organization is positioned for success as we join together with Diamond North”

The Board, executive and staff wish Bill happiness in his retirement and every success in his future endeavors, and we extend to him our heartfelt thanks for the leadership he has provided for our Credit Union.

Members and stakeholders are encouraged to contact Christopher Warriner at c.warriner@sasktel.net or Bill Sanderson at William.sanderson@debden.cu.sk.ca if they have any questions.
